

Does your child use the internet? Then this is an opportunity that you cannot miss!

Digital citizenship...

What does this mean to you?

Tuesday, 7th May (Week 2 Term 2)

At

6pm—7pm

In

Albany Primary School hall

We would love to see you there.

All parents are invited to a free evening to take a look at digital citizenship and parenting responsibly in a digital world, delivered by Pauline Spence from Netsafe, and special guest speaker, Andrew Cowie.

The session will look at how parents/whānau can support and enable children and young people to safely navigate online opportunities, challenges and complexities.

Pauline Spence from Netsafe will talk about the risks, challenges and opportunities of digital technology, and the practical ways we can all help young people to make safe and informed choices online.

Don't miss this opportunity to learn further how to keep your child safe in a digital world.
